How WorkOne Youth Services can help.

When you are young, getting a good job can be a difficult process. Many young people haven't had the opportunity to develop the skills or work experience they need to compete in today's job market.

WorkOne Youth Services can help you:

- Discover your skills, talents and interests
- Choose an interesting and rewarding career path
- Establish a successful career plan to get the training you need to get a good job

Whether you're looking for a summer job, work experience, permanent employment or the education for your career, WorkOne can help you achieve your career goals.

One-on-One Counseling Services

WorkOne will pair you with a Youth Career Coach who can help you explore your options and develop an achievable career plan. Your coach can help you earn your high school diploma or equivalency, find on-the-job training that pays while you learn and set the foundation for your future success. WorkOne even offers financial aid that will allow you to attend training for certifications and degrees that employers need now.*

Career Launch: A Work Readiness Program

Gain skills to start your career by completing the career Launch Work Readiness Program. This will allow you to earn a National Career Readiness Certificate issued by ACT, which will prove that you are ready to work.

You will learn about:

- Workplace communications
- Basic computers and software
- Financial management
- Personal health and wellness
- Team building
- Problem solving and resolution
- How to prepare for and get a job

Contact a WorkOne Youth Career Coach today at 812-948-6102 or 1-866-948-WORK to start planning your career and future.
